Golden Carnation | Studio Apartments

Sited along Tampines Street 11, Golden Carnation is an 11-storey residential block comprising 149 units of Studio Apartments. A neighbourhood centre and Tampines Changkat Community Club are conveniently located nearby, providing residents with easy access to a good range of amenities.

Carnations come in colourful hues and are often used as expressions of affection. Naming the development “Golden Carnation” will give the place a loving and vibrant appeal, while the word “Golden” conveys the idea of growing old gracefully. The building’s façade draws inspiration from the distinctive hues of the carnation flower and is coloured in light green and warm red.

A charming development

The façade of Golden Carnation is designed with patterns and colours to exude a modern and fresh image. A landscaped roof garden extends over the void deck on one side of the block. This intimate roof garden has seats and trellises where the residents can head to for their quiet respite. The sheltered space created below serves as an activity space for residents to meet and interact.

An open plaza lies in the centre of Golden Carnation, providing an ideal venue for small scale events and gatherings. An elderly fitness corner, a community garden and an herbal garden are catered within the development to encourage active lifestyles and social interaction among residents.

The development’s various facilities are linked together via a clear network of elderly-friendly pathways. These are designed with suitably located support grab bars, ramps and ample seats to assist residents in moving around the place with ease. Elderly-friendly features are also incorporated into the design of each of the flat units. In addition, these units are provided with a built-in wardrobe and kitchen cabinets so residents can get to move in hassle-free.
A centre of convenience

Located in a well-established precinct, plenty of amenities are available for residents of Golden Carnation. Just across the road from the development, Tampines Changkat Community Club allows residents to pursue new hobbies. The adjacent neighbourhood centre is a convenient destination for shopping and dining, while fresh produce is readily available at the Tampines Round Market and Food Centre.
